Become a Friend today!

It's an investment in literacy, culture, and our community.

The Friends is a non-profit organization supporting critical library programs that go beyond town funding. There are about 200 members.

Why join?

By joining, you will have a direct impact on literacy and culture in Sterling, through programs such as:

- Passes to local museums and other attractions
- The children's summer reading program, story hour, and book club
- E-books and audio books

Who should join?

Anyone who believes in the importance of literacy and culture in Sterling, but especially:

- Parents and grandparents of young children
- Families who enjoy day outings together to museums, zoos, sporting events, and state parks
- E-book and audio book users
- Avid readers and frequent library visitors

The Conant Public Library in Sterling receives over 4,500 visits per month. Hundreds of children participate in library programs each year. Our passes are used nearly a thousand times each year. Audio books are wildly popular, and e-books are not far behind.

Your generous tax-deductible contribution will directly support critical library programs.
